Transmittal of Samples

Confirming our telephone conversation of July 21, 2006, enclosed are samples of the fastener described in the Stacey Patent, a driver for a fastener with a spiral recess, and a fastener constructed according to this application. As we discussed, please review the samples and give me a call at 508-276-1270 to arrange a telephone interview relating to the issues remaining in this application.

Respectfully submitted,
